A SHIPPER'S RESOURCE

Post-Clearance Delivery Readiness Checklist

12 things to confirm before you book your next shipment, so nothing slips at the border.

Why the Last Mile Costs You

Release from customs is not delivery. Storage, transport and handoffs after clearance quietly add cost and delay. Mills Logistics plans the move from the port to your door, working with Mills Customs and Mills Packaging so cleared cargo keeps moving.

Work through each point before you book. If you cannot tick a box, that is the item to resolve first.

The Readiness Checklist

- ☐ 1. Release requirements are known
  List the payments and release documents needed before cargo can leave the port, and who is responsible for each.

- ☐ 2. Port pickup is scheduled
  Book drayage and confirm pickup windows and container return details so cargo does not sit waiting.

- ☐ 3. Free time and storage charges are tracked
  Know how many free days apply and what charges start afterwards, and plan pickup to stay within them.

- ☐ 4. Trucking matches the cargo
  Confirm that vehicle type, size and capacity suit the weight and dimensions of what is being moved.

- ☐ 5. The delivery address and receiving hours are confirmed
  Check the address, access limits and the hours when your site can receive cargo, and name a contact.

- ☐ 6. Dry storage is arranged if needed
  If cargo will not move straight to its destination, line up secure dry storage with clear receiving and release steps.

- ☐ 7. Cold-chain needs are covered
  For temperature-sensitive goods, confirm the required range and that storage and transport can hold it.

- ☐ 8. Bonded warehousing is checked
  If goods should stay under customs control before release, confirm that bonded storage is available and suitable.

- ☐ 9. Staging and handling equipment is planned
  Confirm forklifts, cranes or labor are available at pickup, storage and delivery, so unloading is not the delay.

☐ 10. Final delivery is sequenced
Order multiple drops by route and priority, and tell each receiver when to expect cargo.

☐ 11. Proof of delivery is part of the process
Agree how delivery is confirmed, with signed receipts and notes on condition, and where those records are kept.

☐ 12. Exceptions are reported fast
Agree who is told, and how quickly, if there is damage, a delay or a failed delivery.
